Companies with most contracts awarded

- Petróleos Mexicanos (PEMEX) has won 14 Exploration and Hydrocarbons Production Contracts during the 9 Mexican oil and gas tender processes<sup>1</sup>, making it the company to which the most contracts have been awarded thus far.
- For these 14 contracts, PEMEX bid as an individual company for 3 contracts and in consortium for 11, making alliances with 7 international companies from 7 different countries. PEMEX has agreed in these contracts to drill 8 exploratory wells.
- The Mexican company Jaguar and Dutch company Shell<sup>2</sup> are in second place, each with 11 awarded contracts. Jaguar won 5 contracts individually and 7 in consortium. Shell was awarded 4 contracts individually and 7 in consortium.
- Jaguar is the company with the largest number of promised wells, for a total of 20 onshore wells. In second place is Shell with 13 deepwater wells.
- Through the conclusion of the first tender of Round 3, 107 contracts have been tendered, covering an area of approximately 88,650 km<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> In reference to State areas of Rounds 1, 2 and 3. In total, the National Hydrocarbons Commission has held 13 tender processes: 4 in Round 1, in Round 2, 1 in Round 3 and 4 in Strategic Partners for PEMEX (not considering the Nobilis-Maximino tender which was cancelled).

<sup>2</sup> According to the company website, Shell is originally a Dutch company, although it is also registered in the United Kingdom.
