

More than 60,000 million dollars are expected in investments in contracts

Estimated investments by location
(mmUSD)

- Investments in contracts from Round 1 and 2, and farmouts are estimated at $61,012 mmUSD for the next 25 years.^{/1}
- So far, 72 contractual areas have been assigned. 38 contractual areas were assigned in Round 1, 31 areas in Round 2 –with one pending bid–, and 3 areas were assigned in Farmouts.
- All 9 deep water contract investments represent 71% of the total expected investment. Investments in the 15 contracts with areas located in shallow waters make 24% while investments in the 48 onshore contracts is equal to 5% of the total expected investment.

Source:

^{/1} Comisión Nacional de Hidrocarburos (2017). Reporte de Inversión estimada de Contratos de Exploración y Extracción. Investments refer to Capital Cost (CAPEX) associated with Exploration and Extraction activities and assumed commercial success for all areas.

mmUSD: million dollars