

Five fields produce 53% of the national oil

Publicada el 16 de agosto de 2017

Average production per well (KBPD)

- In June 2017, the five fields with the largest oil production in the country, according to their contribution, were: Maloob, Zaap, Xanab, Ku and Xux. Together, they produced 1,063.3 thousand barrels per day (KBPD), of a national total of 2,009.6 KBPD.
- The Xanab and Xux fields, began production in 2009 and 2014, respectively. For the first half of 2017, they reached an average production per well of 13.8 KBPD and 5.1 KBPD, respectively.
- While the Maloob, Zaap and Ku fields saw their first barrel in 1985, 1992 and 1981, respectively. In the first half of 2017, they achieved an average production per well of 5.1 KBPD, 5.5 KBPD and 3.2 KBPD respectively

Source: National Hydrocarbons Commission, for more information, go to "Oil and Gas Production Report".