

Drilling Rigs in Mexico

Published on May 10th, 2017

- During March 2017, 25 drilling rigs operated in Mexico, 17 in exploratory activities and 8 in development.
- 3 of the rigs worked within the contractual areas.
- The number of active rigs has shown a decrease of 87%, between 2009 and 2017*.
- Development drilling rigs have shown the main decrease, going from 150 on average during 2009 to 19 in 2016.

Source: National Hydrocarbons Commission. More details in the “Drilling Rigs” report.

Data includes drilling rigs in entitlements and contractual areas.

This report was modified due to updated data on June 2017.

* Average from January to March.